AN ACT
For the relief of Paul Levitt.

April 4, 1960
[H. R. 7447]

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Secretary of the Treasury is hereby authorized and directed to pay, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, to Paul Levitt, of Boston, Massachusetts, the sum of $381.55. Such sum represents reimbursement to the said Paul Levitt for paying out of his own funds a judgment rendered against him in the courts of the State of Massachusetts, arising out of an accident occurring on July 26, 1954, when the said Paul Levitt was operating a Government vehicle in the course of his duties as an employee of the Post Office Department: Provided, That no part of the amount appropriated in this Act shall be paid or delivered to or received by any agent or attorney on account of services rendered in connection with this claim, and the same shall be unlawful, any contract to the contrary notwithstanding. Any person violating the provisions of this Act shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be fined in any sum not exceeding $1,000.

AN ACT
For the relief of the Maco Warehouse Company.

April 4, 1960
[H. R. 8801]

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Secretary of the Treasury is authorized and directed to pay, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, to the Maco Warehouse Company, Stockton, California, the sum of $1,745.86. The payment of such sum shall be in full settlement of all claims of such company against the United States for the cost of certain alterations and repairs made by such company to certain premises leased from the United States under contract numbered DA(s)04-203-eng-211, dated June 23, 1950, for which costs such company has not been reimbursed. Such sum represents the difference between the total amount determined by the United States Court of Claims to be equitably due such company from the United States and the amount of a certain judgment ordered by such court to be entered in favor of the United States against such company. Such determination and judgment, and other findings of fact with respect to this matter, are contained in the congressional reference case styled Maco Warehouse Company California against The United States (No. Cong. 2-56), decided January 14, 1959. Such judgment in favor of the United States shall be held and considered to be satisfied upon acceptance by such company of the sum to be paid under this section.
